

Contents

Professional Mariner September 2011

Towing

12 Trucking firm hires Foss to transport wind turbines on ocean barges

BY BRIAN GAUVIN

Classic Casualty

20 Argo Merchant grounding off Nantucket produced lessons in tracking oil spills

BY GREY HALL

Trends & Currents

44 Wireless e-mail improving quality of life for mariners

BY RICH MILLER

A Mariner's Notebook

48 Arctic update: Maritime 'gold rush' heats up in the northern passages

BY CAPT. KELLY SWEENEY

Industry Signals

4 Floods, budget woes cloud outlook for Mississippi River channel depth

8 Military Sealift Command to try contract crews on JHSVs

10 EPIRBs with GPS can result in quicker response times and more lives saved

Contents

Professional Mariner September 2011

Maritime Casualties

- 26 Ship full of logs has steering casualty, slams into Columbia River dock
- 29 Three from menhaden boat killed in collision with containership
- 31 Second cruise ship in 5 months experiences generator fire, blackout off coast of Mexico
- 34 Canadian ferry needs dry-dock repairs after grounding, hitting dock
- 35 Wayward tug runs into bulk carrier at Columbia River anchorage
- 36 Barge sinks in Ohio River after cable parts following pushboat's collision with a pier
- 38 Ohio River bridge closed after being hit by pushboat and tow during rush hour
- 40 Barge loaded with heating oil damaged in East River grounding
- 41 While docking, containership loses control, clips crane and knocks it off its track
- 42 Mississippi River tow strikes bridges at Vicksburg; barges break loose

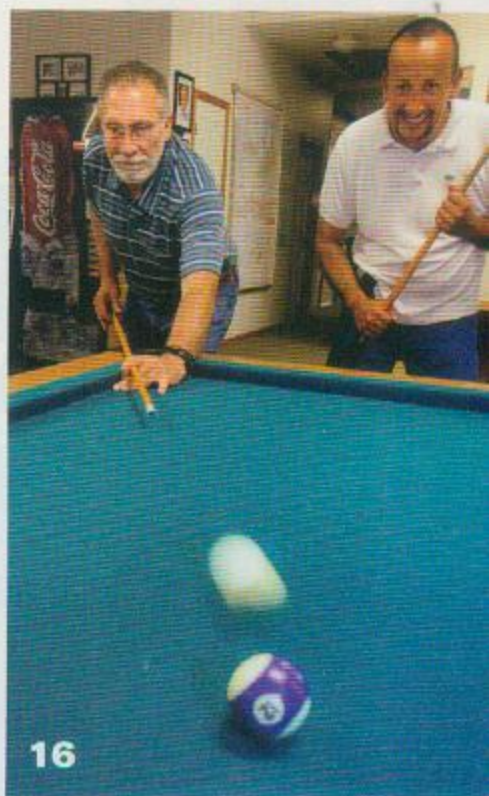

Vessels at Work

- 24 Watch-standers ensure smooth sailing at tight Port Everglades

BY BRIAN GAUVIN

ON THE COVER

Capt. Bruce Cummings, commanding pilot of the Port Everglades Pilots Association, climbs a ladder to board the MSC Prague at the sea buoy as the containership approached Port Everglades. See story, Page 24. Photo by Brian Gauvin.

- 16 Mission centers provide a place in port for mariners to phone home and unwind

BY DOM YANCHUNAS

