

Contents

For further in-depth coverage go to safetyatsea.net

Contact us by email at SA5magazine@ihsmarkit.com

Features

P20 Future proofing

The measures and technologies shipping must consider to meet 2050 emission targets

P24 Tough decisionst

A study explores what affects safety critical decisions on the bridge in a bid to reduce major incidents

P26 Safety first

What safety culture really means and the practical ways to strengthen it

P28 Measuring progress

Assessing how effective abandonment insurance changes have been to MLC 2006

P30 Revealing the cracks

The most vulnerable crew are slipping through cracks in abandonment protections stipulated in MLC 2006 regulations

Regulars

P4 Our say

Migrant rescues should not fall solely to crew

P5 Your say

A call for shipping to address mental health

P6 News round-up

Negligent homicide charges dropped against USS Fitzgerald captain

P12 Security news

Product tanker attacked at anchor in Nigeria

P14 Training news

Calls for crew training on post traumatic stress

P16 Shared concerns

Crew on the safety issues of scrubbers

P18 Life of a port chaplain

An insight into the work of a port chaplain

P34 Security insight

P35 Regulation insight

P36 Sea Health & Welfare on safety culture

P38 MARS

P40 Products

P42 View astern

On the cover

A critical look at amends to MLC 2006 regulations made to better protect crew from abandonment and what crew need to know to seek help. P30

Become an AIS Station Partner Get Connected & Cover Your Area

As part of IHS Markit's continuing expansion to our AIS network we are keen to work with reliable partners in ports, harbours, marinas and businesses in strategic locations around the globe to further enhance our coverage of global vessel movements.

Learn about partnership benefits and IHS Markit's professional AIS network.

Visit ihsmarkit.com/AISPartners

