

IN THIS ISSUE/

VOL. 66 No. 3 March 2010

→Features

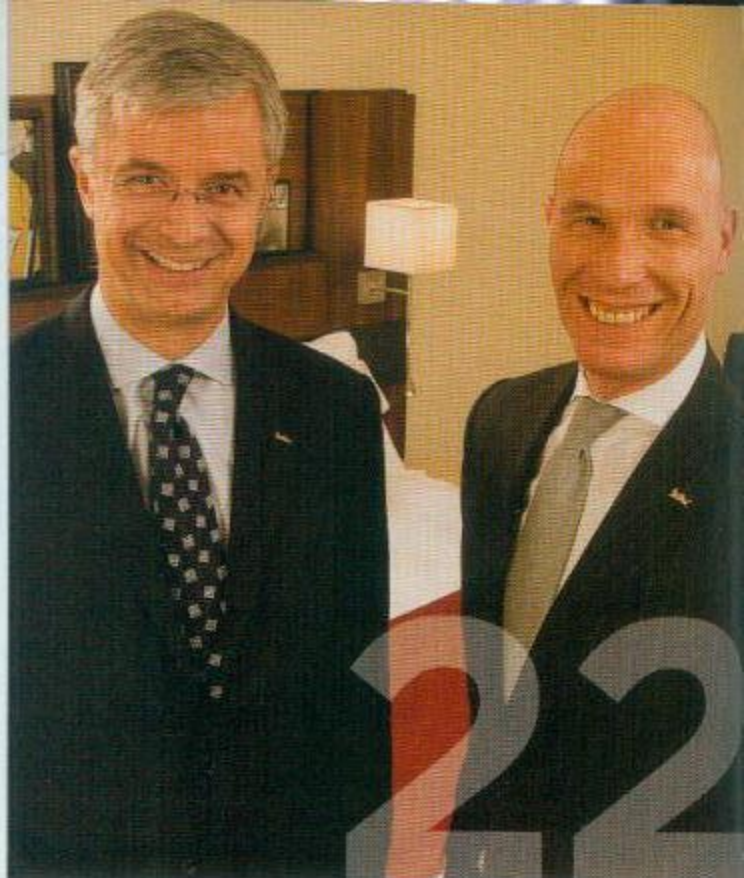

4/Forum Editor Ed Watkins believes the Travel Promotion Act will be the greatest legislative victory for the industry ever.

22/Carlson Gets Ambitious Radisson revitalization is the focal point of Carlson Hotels' five-year strategic plan.

28/Silver Lining Exclusive LH roundtable brings together industry executives who pinpoint the opportunities ahead.

38/The New Normal The third and final installment of the Fallen Economy series.

44/Revered RI Resort Rises Again Renovations under way at Ocean House.

→Departments

48/Technically Speaking Quick Response Key to Sales & Catering.

50/Back of the House The latest in hotel products and services

56/Advertiser Index

→Check In

12/Distress Signals Opportunity Richard Warnick discusses his approach to asset management during these tough times.

14/ALIS In Wonderland Conflicting data and opinions left many confused about the direction of the industry.

16/AmericInn Converting Strategy Brand looks to grow through conversions.

17/Marriott Signs Autographs Kessler Collection becomes first to join.

18/Rushmore Managing Risks Part of Managing Hotels.

→NOW @ LHONLINE.COM

TODAY'S TOP READS: Check out Lodging Hospitality's newest online feature. Don't have time to peruse all the hotel news from around the world? Let the Lodging Hospitality editors do the work for you and see what they think are the most interesting and informative stories of the day. Find the new section under Front Desk Blog or type LHonline.com/top-reads/ for the latest from around the world.